Publisher's Memo

A Special Thank You to Mom...

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

This month we're sending a special thank you to all of our colleagues who are Moms. We recognize the unique challenges that mothers face in balancing work with home life. It isn't easy and we're glad to be a trusted resource for those working moms who need quick and reliable answers to get their day job done!

Here's a little bit of history about Mother's Day and maybe a slight hint to our male colleagues:

Julia Ward Howe, social reformer and poet, made the first suggestion for a Mother's Day in the United States. In 1872, she suggested Mother's Day be on June 2 and that it be a day dedicated to peace. She sponsored Mother's Day meetings in Boston for several years, and people in other towns began to do the same. In 1907, Anna Jarvis of Grafton, West Virginia, began a campaign for a nationwide observance of Mother's Day. She also began the custom of wearing a carnation on that day—a colored carnation if one's mother is living and a white carnation if one's mother has died. On May 9, 1914, President Woodrow Wilson signed a joint resolution of Congress authorizing federal agencies to observe Mother's Day. The following year, Mother's Day was proclaimed as an annual national holiday. Mothers are often taken out for dinner, given greeting cards, flowers, or handmade gifts as expressions of love and appreciation to "moms" of all ages.

The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world!

Regards,

Gary

Obama, Romney Focus On Student Loan Debt

Wooing young voters, President Barack Obama is on a blitz to keep the cost of college loans from soaring for millions of students, taking his message to three states strategically important to his re-election bid. By taking on student debt, Obama is speaking to middle-class America and targeting an enormous burden that threatens the economic recovery.

Before Obama got his road trip under way, Republican opponent Mitt Romney found a way to steal some thunder from the president's campaign argument: He agreed with it. Read *more*.

Could your next Facebook Friend be a debt collector?

Be careful who you accept as a friend on Facebook. Our Certified Financial Planner, Denisa Tova, is here to tell us who can be posing as your friend but only to get your private information.

More and more debt collectors are using social media to track you down. They set up a fake profile and be-friend you only to get your private information. Read *more*.

Did You Know?

In 1870, Julia Ward Howe was the first to recognize the need for an official day to celebrate mothers, however it wasn't until 1907 that the modern version of Mother's Day was first observed in the United States.

Mother's Day is celebrated in more than 46 countries around the world.

Testimonial

"We have been using The Forwarders List for seven plus years and have found them to be very efficient in providing us with quality service. They have not only identified our needs, but when we consult them for a new attorney referral, they understand what works best for us and have always represented us well."

Here's what you had to say:

Hands down, you said "Caddyshack" was the best - a film classic! Your reasons? Bill Murray, Rodney Dangerfield and of course, all the "great quotable quips".

A very distant second was "Tin Cup". However, for Jennifer Parry-Zoltan of Commercial Recovery Bureau, this movie will always be her favorite because it was shot in her backyard!

And finally, "Happy Gilmore" and "The Legend of Bagger Vance" were also acknowledged.

Congratulations to our April Poll Question Winner,

Marc Hirshel from McKenzie Becker & Stevens in Connecticut!

Your iTunes gift card will be mailed to you!

Thanks to everyone who participated.
